

I didn't take a drink today,
I didn't smoke nothing today
I didn't get in a car today,
I rode my bike on the freeway
I'm not your savior today,
I'm not your lover today
I'm not your object today,
I'm your brother today

Revolution

I didn't pay no rent today, just so I could lie on the ground
I went and picked a house out,
I kicked the door down
I didn't shoot no dope today, just put on my guitar and play
I get on my knees and pray, that we're gonna find a way

Revolution

I don't need to kill anyone, 'cause it's all in my head, do I believe

And abide by the rules of property

Do I submit myself to the never ending wage slavery

I don't need to kill anyone, 'cause it's all in my head, do I believe

That the women and the children, and the animals, the skies and the seas, are my property

I don't need to kill anyone, 'cause it's all in my head, do I believe

That to get through the today I need nicotine, I need caffeine,
I need speed Evolve, love
