

I've Got A Secret

Fight Fair

I've got a secret, don't know what to do
I've gotta get it, and I mean get it into you
I'm going crazy, it's killing me inside
Girl listen up, I'm taking your heart for a joy ride

I've got a secret, I've got a secret
I've got a crush on you
I've got a secret, I've got a secret
I've been meaning to tell you

Met you baby, after school (class dismissed! )
You're the type of girl who makes the boys drool (haha! )
Ralph Lauren Polo and your favourite skinny jeans
You wear it better than the models in the magazines

You've got that look, you've got that style
I'm sweatin' over you
I just can't hide it anymore, baby you're making me goo-goo
Just give me a chance, I know we're right for each other
So let's start this now and then forever girl

I've got a secret, I've got a secret
I've got a crush on you
I've got a secret, I've got a secret
I've been meaning to tell you

Girl you know that I'm winking at you
So baby clap your hands twice if you like me too
Tell me how you feel

My, oh my, yeah girl you're fly
Crushin' on you and I can not lie
Take you on a date to get pinkberry swirl
Then we go watch that Gossip Girl
You and I were meant for each other
Trust me girl, there is no other
With an at reply you caught my eye
The twitter feed girl, let's not be shy
Word

I've got a secret, I've got a secret
I've got a crush on you
I've got a secret, I've got a secret
I've been meaning to tell you

Girl you know that I'm winking at you
So baby clap your hands if you like me too
Tell me how you feel

You know my secret so now it's up to you
I hope you have a crush on me too
