

Shine

Fight or Flight

How could you take a life away
So young
You know it doesn't seem right
God just got an angel tonight

I can't wait to see you (you're fading)
In the afterlife (so I can hold him)
I drink until I'm wasted (so wasted)
Couldn't fix what's on my mind (all the time)

How could you take a life away
So young
You know it doesn't seem right
God just got an angel tonight
I'm breathing
It's a fight
Believe me every dream tonight
Has your face by mine
You'll always shine

If I could've took you place and traded (traded)
The pain you felt for mine (all the time)
You'd stare into our faces (the faces)
And then you'd try to smile (every time)

How could you take a life away
So young
You know it doesn't seem right
God just got an angel tonight
I'm breathing
It's a fight
believe me every dream tonight
Has your face by mine
You'll always shine [3x]

You'll always shine

I'm breathing
It's a fight
Believe me every dream tonight
Has your face by mine
You'll always shine
