

Second Horizon

Fight The Fade

Where is the sun?
Where is the light of day?
It's so dark, I can't see,
But I've been climbing for days.

Just tell me there's something more
Beyond the valley I see...

I'm looking on to the second horizon
Pushing past, pushing through the pain
You can't tell where the sun is rising
Night is darkest just before the day

You can't tell me this is all for nothing.
All for shame all for not at all.
I just know there is a bigger picture,
Something out there, I feel it in my bones

Look!
On!
To the second horizon
Look!
On!
Cause daylight is coming!

The second horizon
The second horizon
