Where Do We Go from Here

Ease
Had to start telling me
Won't bring me to my knees
Scraped up and bruised from your fickelness
I plead
Just let me feel some ease from creatures of your greed
Just let me feel some ease for me

I'm not so glad I met you
It makes me want to go away
I touch
Yeah, yeah, yeah...

Where do we go from here?
You know I'm not the only one
Where do we go from here?
No, I'm not the only one

These
Broken dreams are screams to me
The difference I can't see
The way you look and talk to me
You're cursing me I freeze
The combination of loss, control, loss of soul
I weaze
Just give some ease to me

I'm not so glad I met you
It makes me want to go away
I touch
Yeah, yeah, yeah...

Where do we go from here?
You know I'm not the guilty one
Where do we go from here?
No, I'm not the only one

I touch
Yeah, yeah, yeah...

Where do we go from here?
Stop dreamin' 'bout the shiny gun
Where do we go from here?
No, I'm not the only one
Where do we go from here?
Where do we go from here?
Where do we go from here?
Where do we go from here?
Where do we go..... yeah....
