Tarot

Finch

I sink tonight
I'm down inside
Crawling to the place I like to hide
Spinning round
Fear me now
Left you right 'til I'm upside down

Shadows dance on the wall
You sing to me
Sleeping

It's stupid
There's no common ground
It's too late for apologies
It's too late
For this mess you've made
Again

Run with me
You take the lead
I forget the world silently
No more songs
You wrote them all
So one more time around
It's all your fault

You're sailing on
That's okay
I'll learn to swim someday

It's stupid
There's no common ground
It's too late for apologies
It's too late
For this mess you've made
Again

Come with me now
I'm lost and I've found it
I've hit the ground
And I'm running

Is it too late [x4]
