

Honesty

Fink

Who was it telling me Honestly Honesty is all about the timing
Oh, my bad There was I thinking that honesty Was all about truth Oh, woe is me With your honesty We've had conversations About the past It's taken long enough to see Your true colours You've got so many baby You're like a fuckin rainbow Just let me revel in your blue notes Who was it sitting here Yesterday Saying that I'm leaving in a hurry Oh, my bad There was I sitting there watching you Talking like I'm already gone Oh, woe is me With your honesty We've had conversations About the past It's taken long enough to see Your true colours You've got so many baby You re like a fucking rainbow Just let me revel in your blue note
Who was it telling me Honestly Honesty is all about the timing
Oh, my bad There was I thinking that honesty Was all about truth
Oh, woe is me With your honesty
