

Kamlyn, i hope you understand
i hope you know i'm sorry that it's your blood on my hands Kamlyn, this isn't what i planned at all but don't you know one last goodbye is now a one night stand is all

on the heath, in the grass, in the sunshine and i watch myself as i stab myself in the back with the question mark

Kamlyn, i hope you know it's tough to see you one last time just to give you back your stuff, it's tough baby Kamlyn, i know it, i know we're still in love, i know it, i know but don't you know one last goodbye ain't never gone be enough

on the heath, in the grass, in the sunshine

always in control of it
this isn't what i planned at all coz i'm always in control

Kamlyn, i wish you'd seen the signs i hope you know i'm sorry that the best laid plans were mine yeah.... i hope you understand
