

Little Blue Mailbox

Fink

Little blue mailbox, wonder if you'll have the next letter
Little blue mailbox, wonder if you'll ever make me feel better
Looking at the streetlight, when it's lit there'll be a night w aiting
I fumble with the paper, see the words you wrote are already fa ding
I've been waiting all this time for a letter
My insides shaking, will this feeling last forever
I've been waiting

Staring in the mirror did you finds another true beauty
A girl with bluer eyes and
A girl who never tired and moody
Time on my mind, it's a funny thing
I just wanna hear you
The words that you sent are the only thing that makes me feel n ear you
I've been waiting all this time for a letter
My insides shaking, will this feeling last forever
I've been waiting
I've been waiting
