Pilgrim

Come a long way, come a long way Come a long way Not to work it out As cold comfort wraps around you in the dark Come a long way Come a long way not to ask the question that's been on your lips all the way Spit it out The words come out, yeah it's already not as heavy as before Come a long way Come a long way Come a long way Come a long way Just to say Doesn't matter when it mattered yesterday And tomorrow ain't too far Come a long way From small beginnings Come a long way From small beginnings

Come big endings
