

Six Weeks

Fink

So much changes
And I know it's been ages
I've been busy
Killing time
And I ask my brothers
How long have I got
Now it's out there
On the clock
Now she said it
I'm killing time

So much changes
in a single word

So much changes
in a single word

The girlfriends have spoken Six weeks before the spell is broken
Just made sure you mean it
When you say it
In six week's time

So much changes
in a single word

So much changes
in a single word

Say what you want
Say what you want
So much changes
Say what you want
Say what you want
So much changes
