

Too Late

Fink

You are, you are, you are
In charge, in control, inside
But outside, it's too cold, I'm too stoned
And it's too late to start again
It's too late to start again

It's too late
It's too late
It's too late
It's too late

Ooooooooooh it's too late, it's too late

In the end, the end, the end
Is closer than you think, inside
But outside, it's all well-dressed guesswork
And it's too late to start again
It's too late to start again

Ooooooooooooooh
It's too late, yeah
It's too late
It's too late
Ooooooooooooooh
Ooooooooooooooh
It's too late

Tonight, tonight, tonight
It's all that we know, inside
But outside, there's no lights, there's no rider, no aftershow
And it's too late to start again
