

I can't stand my nature
Me, myself and I
There's no space for anybody in my crowded mind
Now everytime I look inside me
I feel so ashamed
I can taste the bitter flavour of my own mistakes
And if only I could retrace my steps
I'd change everything, everything but you
I've got a reason to say I'm sorry
I know that it's too late to realize it
But all these simple words are just for you
While I gave you nothing
You gave everything to me
You're the thing I've never been but what I wanna be
And if only I could retrace my steps
I'd change everything, everything but you
I've got a reason to say I'm sorry
I know that it's too late to realize it
But all these simple words are just for you
Because you loved me more than your own lives
And if I needed you were by my side
Here I am, this song is just for you
Tender like a childhood sound,
like your hugs when I was young
Your attentions never made feel alone
Tender like a childhood sound,
like your hugs when I was young
'cause I'm sure that I will never be alone
I've got a reason to say I'm sorry
I know that it's too late to realize it
But all these simple words are just for you
Because you loved me more than your own lives
And if I needed you were by my side
Here I am, this song is just for you
