

Suffer Never

Finn Brothers

Has she fallen from the sky
So heavy of heart
The sigh was on her tongue
The grief was in her arms
She will suffer never
I mean her no harm
She'll come slowly rising
On the air
Lift her weightless
On the air, on the air
And the silence was enough
To shed my guilt
She will always know my wishes
'Cause I remember how it felt
Kisses slowly rising
On the air
Lift her weightless
On the air, on the air
She will suffer never
I mean her no harm
