I don't understand about complementary colors And what they say Side by side they both get bright Together they both get gray

But he's been pretty much yellow And I've been kinda blue But all I can see is Red, red, red, red now What am I gonna do

I don't understand about Diamonds and why men buy them What's so impressive about a diamond Except the mining

And it's dangerous work
Trying to get to you too
And I think if I didn't have to Kill, kill, kill, kill, kill myself doing it
Maybe I wouldn't think so much of you

I've been watching all the time
And I still can't find the tack
And I wanna know is it okay
Is it just fine
Or is it my fault
Is it my lack

I don't understand about The weather outside Or the harmony in a tune Or why somebody lied

There's solace a bit for submitting To the fitfully cryptically true What's happened has happened What's coming is already on its way With a role for me to play

I don't understand
I'll never understand
But I'll try to understand
There's nothing else I can do
