

Core Of My Addiction

Fireflight

I'm aching, transparent
Your eyes see right through me
I'm dependent and shaking
I'm falling to my knees

And I can't contain this
You're the only one I need
I'm hooked and I cannot hide it
Your love's controlling me

You're the core of my addiction
I want to live, want to lose myself in You
You're the heart of my obsession
I want to live, but I would die for You
I'm addicted

Impulsive, enraptured
This yearning's captured me
I'm determined, I'm not pretending
You are my destiny

I can feel the freedom
You're the only one I need
I'm alive and finally breathing
You're my recovery

You're the core of my addiction
I want to live, want to lose myself in You
You're the heart of my obsession
I want to live, but I would die for You
I'm addicted

God, I've waited for this day
I'll never run away
And You won't have to chase me

You're the core of my addiction
I want to live, want to lose myself in You
You're the heart of my obsession
I want to live, but I would die for You
I'm addicted

I'm addicted
I'm addicted
I'm addicted to You
