I'm running through the ground with my bare feet
Will it come back to me, this feeling of defeat
Give me direction, the moon, the sun a trail
Cause I'm running around with no end
I'm running around with no end

Our dad left us before we were born
Our dear mother is still a bit torn
In the need of the map to take her back
To what she once were
When the road was straight
And the people around kind
Just take her back

And the moon stood high
(on this very day)
The forest was quiet
(I was waiting by our tree)
And the moon stood high
(on this very day)
The forest was quiet
I was waiting by our tree

Beloved friends of mine
Go on and take my place
Cause my chest is burning like hell
When I'm on stage
Give me direction, the moon, the sun a trail
Cause I'm here, ready and can't wait
People of my age
We need a change
Before it's too late

And the moon stood high
(on this very day)
The forest was quiet
(I was waiting by our tree)
And the moon stood high
(on this very day)
The forest was quiet
I was waiting by our tree
