

Everybody talks
Nobody understands Everyone takes Just as much as they can
But at the top of the stairs, There's a room with a key.
'Cause I got a secret inside of me.

And everybody's lost and nobody is found
The pathway should walk Across this treacherous ground
But I go where I like, and I do what I please Because I got a secret inside of me,
and no one can take that away.

And everybody comes and everybody goes when your number comes up Nobody ever really knows.
But my eyes are wide open and my conscience is clean.
'Cause I got a secret inside of me
and no one can take that away.

Seems like everything I do Everything I play,
everything I try,
every single day
always seems to come out backwards for me

Meanwhile, everybody laughs,
everybody lies,
everybody lives,
everybody tries
Just to make it through another day

And everyone shut up maybe I could hear myself scream
'Cause I got a secret inside of me
and no one can take that away

Everything I play,
everything I try,
every single day
always seems to come out backwards for me

Meanwhile, everybody laughs,
everybody lies,
everybody lives,
everybody tries

and everybody leaves and everyone tries,

but nobody sees.
But I'm never gonna give up, I'll never give into the grief
because I got a secret inside of me
and I'm gonna lock it away Yeah, I got a secret inside of me
and no one can take that away.
