

Spirits In A Digital World

Firewind

Prepare yourself,
it's a different world
Only the strongest will survive
Arm yourself with dignity and grace
No emotions, heart of stone

Our spirits, our spirits
In a digital world
Our spirits, our spirits
In a digital world

There's a ghost in the machine
Lost spirits in a digital world
No instincts, all is gone
Prepare yourself;
it's a brand new world
Only gods and heroes left

Our spirits, our spirits
In a digital world
Our spirits, our spirits
In a digital world

Fill yourself with anger and hate
It's just a matter of time
All systems are ready to go
Just a beginning of the end
