

When All Is Said And Done

Firewind

Fly away; fly with broken wings my angel
Never stay; leave the cold leave the sorrow
Hold on (hold on) - even if your world's colliding Dream on (dream on) - no one can take your breath you're windin g

And I know when you're free, you will see, all is gone, when yo u're drifting away
Take your time everything will be fine on your own till' the en d of the day

Oh!Oh!Oh!Oh! - When all is said and done
Oh!Oh!Oh!Oh! - From the day that you begun

When all is said and done

Drift away; you feel you don't belong to someone Never pray; never trust a false messiah
Keep on - even when your world is burning Carry on - days of defiance you are yearning

And I know when you're free, you will see, pain is gone, when y ou're flying away
Take your time everything will be fine on your own till' the en
d of the day

Oh!Oh!Oh!Oh! - When all is said and done
Oh!Oh!Oh!Oh! - You've only just begun
Oh!Oh!Oh!Oh! - When all is said and done
Oh!Oh!Oh!Oh! - Don't stay just hit and run
