

My Wild Sweet Love

First Aid Kit

What comes after this?
A momentary bliss
Oh I need you more than ever now

And here we are somehow

The world shines gold and new
See it all in you
Oh I need you more than ever now
The night breaks through somehow

Will I know what this all means?
When we're a hazy memory
With all the colors of a dream
My wild sweet love
My wild sweet love

I've decided, invited in
And now I'm lost again
Oh I need you more than ever now
I'll make through somehow

Will I know what this all means?
When we're a hazy memory
With all the colors of a dream
My wild sweet love
My wild sweet love

I can't blame you for taking that path
No matter how I wish you'd come back to me
Now to reclaim the past, just do what you gotta do

Will I know what this all means?
When we're a hazy memory
With all the colors of a dream
My wild sweet love
My wild sweet love
My wild sweet love
My wild sweet love
