

Heartbeat

Fischer-Z

And the man was right
I only saw the trees
And the man was right
I'm very hard to please
And I won't look back with a feeling of regret
And I won't look down, 'cos I haven't finished yet
There's always something, a certain something,
A sound or something whatever you say oooh
You're just a heartbeat away.

Oh you're my heartbeat heartbeat
When I'm dead on my feet
Heartbeat, Heartbeat you're just a
Heartbeat away.

And I know sometimes
You love me all the same
And I know sometimes
You doubt if I will learn
And I know you would protect me with your life
And I know you care because you told me so
There's always something, a certain something,
A sound or something what ever you say oooh
You're just a heartbeat away.
