

Charting The Single

Fish

Yeah!

Slow french kissing with the dauphin's daughter
If I fall in love now I'll be floating in seine
Plastered in paris I've had an eiffel
Gonna make my escape on the midnight train -
Choo, choo to you - choo, choo to you - charting the single

Schnapping my fingers on an alcoholiday
Sniff round a fraulein when I'm scent to cologne
All night hotel liebbling make your mark
Let sugar daddy melt in his home
Sweet home
Home is where the heart lies,
Where is home, is where the heart lies, but where is home?

Get a pizza the action when I romeo again
Chianti see you with me, so just let him wine
Juliet on the balcony, it's pasta serenade
Wedding rings, I know when venice time,
Venice time to chart the single, to chart the single

Charting the single, charting the single

The chicks are getting cheaper on the not so common market
Stockpile experience before the blond hairs turn to grey,
Before the blond hairs turn to grey
I like to train, express myself in the universal language
Ego on my face in the nicest possible way
It's absolutely the nicest possible way

Charting the single

I got no clause in my contract, got no shares in my name
I'm just charting the single in a bachelor's game, charting the single
It's a solo performance on a one way street
You'll never have the chance again and never again we'll meet
Charting, charting, charting, charting the single

Yeah, yeah, charting the single
Yeah, yeah, charting the single
Charting, ouh, charting, ouh charting, ouh, charting the single Charting, charting, charting, I'm charting the single Charting, charting, I'm charting the single Charting, charting, charting, charting
Charting the single, charting the single

Home is where the heart lies, but if the heart lies,
Where is home, is where the heart lies, but where is home?
Where is home? - charting the single
