

Closer

Fisher

Am I wrong to want you near?
A bit of heaven with you beside me
I see your face in the eyes of the sky but you are farther than far tonight

Am I wrong to feel this way?
Do my tears fall down in the darkness?
Or do you see them all from a distance
-and will you come to me and make them go away?

A little closer now
is where you need to be
A little closer now
is where you need to be The only thing worth the pain is wanting

Am I wrong to want you near?
