Human

Fisher

You came up, once again Seems you're the topic of every single conversation

I was the one, once again making apologies, all in your defence
Just give her time.

Chorus:
It's all right if you fall
You are human after all
But it hurts when you land
On my life I'm not your
Jesus Christ

You show up when you need
Make no apologies lay your world upon my shoulders

Hey, what a friend you have in me
You give me all your sin take my soul and go time after time

It's all right if you fall
You are human after all
But it hurts when you land
On my life I'm not your
Jesus Christ

Save yourself
Save yourself
Forsake me

It's all right if you fall
You are human after all
But it hurts when you land
On my life I'm not your
Jesus Christ
