Get Right Back

Fitz and the Tantrums

Oh, when your heart starts beating Oh, can you feel it, feel it? Oh, when your soul ain't breathing You get right back You get right back Oh, when your heart starts beating Oh, can you feel it, feel it? Oh, when you stop believing You get right back You get right back Hey, hey, hey Hey, hey, hey What you need? What you want? It's time to open your eyes and find what you lost Take a stand when you fall Don't let them pigeon your mind, you never get caught I'm mister I won't change my way No I don't hear a word you say Hey, hey If you think I'm good as gone No no you're dead wrong You're dead wrong I move on Oh, when your heart starts beating Oh, can you feel it, feel it? Oh, when your soul ain't breathing You get right back You get right back Oh, when your heart starts beating Oh, can you feel it, feel it? Oh, when you stop believing You get right back You get right back Hey, hey, hey Hey, hey, hey
