

Trouble

Five Finger Death Punch

I don't look for trouble, trouble looks for me That's how it always been, that's how it's gonna be Looking down on you, you're looking up to me I've never saw you coming, you've never saw me
I can't explain who I am

Cause there's no excuses,
this is who I meant to be
There's no regrets, I don't care if you believe
There's no excuses,
this is who I chose to be
I don't look for trouble, trouble looks for me

Does it confuse you? I fucking used you I got just what I want and what I wanna do You won't destroy me, you're just annoying me
I'm sitting here on top, so fuck your trophy

Cause there's no excuses,
this is who I meant to be
There's no regrets, I don't care if you believe
There's no excuses,
this is who I chose to be
I don't look for trouble, trouble looks for me

Cause there's no excuses,
this is who I meant to be
There's no regrets, I don't care if you believe
There's no excuses,
this is who I chose to be
I don't look for trouble, trouble looks for me
