

Love Can't Change The Weather

Five For Fighting

Love comes in, love goes out
Moves in circles, roundabout
We've been tied, we can't make it anymore

Love is young, love gets old
Ages better, the love goes cold
We've been trying, we can't take it anymore

"Love can't change the weather," she says
I'm out of my mind, over my head
Love can't change the weather, but I'll rise
To shade the sun when it blinds your eyes

Love is born, love is dead
Runs in colors, blues and reds
We can't die, we can't waste it anymore

Loving me, loving you
Makes it better when love is true
We are one, we can face any storm

"Love can't change the weather," she says
I'm out of my mind over my head
Love can't change the weather, but I'll be Holding you when the rain walks in

Holding on, holding on

And if you're wondering
What is my take on this?
If you're wondering

I'm out of my mind, over my head now
But I'll shade the sun if it blinds your eyes

Love can't change the weather, but I stand
Holding your heart, keeping your hand now
Love can't change the weather, I believe
No act of God is stronger than you and me
(Stronger than you and me)

Love comes in, love goes out
We can't die
