

Against The World

Flame

[x4:]

Turn it down a little bit (You and me against the world)

I don't wanna hinder it

It's gonna be me and him against the world (You and me against the world)

'Cause it's you and me against the world, the world, the world

They ask me, "do you love me 'nough that you would really give up the world?

It's been too long, I

Can't live 'dis life no mo'

With' all o' yo' lies, I

Can't run from right no mo'

He took on flesh for me

All you took was my joy

He played his role perfectly

You played me like a toy

I'm so done with' you

I got my bags packed

I'm burnin' my bridges

'Case you try ta drag me back

Someone got me loose

Here, you can have your noose

You're like a brown recluse

I'm chuckin' up tha deuce, through

They told me it wouldn't last

They said it would never work

They told me this love would pass

But it's you and me against the world

They told me to leave you now

You're only with him 'cause you're hurt

But I'm gonna stand my ground

'Cause it's you and me against the world, the world, the world

They ask me, "do you love me 'nough that you would really give up the world?

I did the stupidest things for you

All in the name of staying true

Embarrassing myself, had me actin' like a fool, and

What did I get in return, and

What did I get in exchange

Besides, teary eyes, broken hearts and lots of pain

Tried to hold on to what we had

But, it was never real, and

The one who loved me the most, man

I helped him get killed, man

Messin' around with' you, left

Millions of regrets, yet

The love that I rejected

Eventually resurrects

See, although I played {'I'm?'} {Lately?} Betrayed {'I'm?'}
See that guy right there
I'm gonna save 'I'm

That's exactly what He did
After the perfect life was lived
Crucified, he would rise
Now, I'm one of His kids
