

Sleepin'

Flame

You gon' need the man that you sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on Sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on
You gon' need the man that you sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on Sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on

See all they 'bout is Bugatti talk, mix it up a little blasphemy
But as for me and my whole team, we liftin' up who they blaspheme So why they lookin' at me sideways? Now days everybody just on what t hey on
It can be popping mollies, talking illuminati, or pop a lot of bottle s of Patrón
So why they lookin' at me sideways? Now days everybody wanna talk abo ut the killer
With a bad chick and a strip club with her; on that magic, bartender want that liquor then it goes But they don't recognize that we finna be gone, sleepin' on him like memory phones
Was in sync but the symmetry gone, now sin in the track like kidney s tones
So pardon me if I snap, pardon me if I rap
And put Jesus in it with the reason being I wanna see some men get ba ck
But first, man gotta see he's lost before he can even be found Before he can even go up, a man gotta see you going down like this They'll see the need, please concede, 'cause you can go out like Eazy-
E
All for what? A bigger Bezel? Cash money? A lil' Weezy weed?
That Wayne I know you think you cool, you don't even need it Boy you trippin' sleepin'

You gon' need the man that you sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on Sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on
You gon' need the man that you sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on Sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on

We sleepin' on him 'cause we comfortable, and we can't tell that he a ngry with us
He loves us enough just to give us life, but now we done got real hei nous with it
Now we done got real famous with it, legislate it and celebrate it Advocating our favorite sins, hang 'em up and we decorate it I used to think it's 'cause we didn't know, now I know it's 'cause we don't care
I guess it's like being on death row, it don't get real till you in t hat chair
I said it's hard to feel what you don't think is real, hard to trust what you don't understand And now we talkin' 'bout the supernatural, and that ain't natural to the common man
They sleepin' on him like LeBron James 'cause Michael Jordan got more rings
But it ain't over 'cause number 6 still playin' and got more games

Only difference: God already won, so we playin' the game in reverse And the underrated is undisputed, and they think we stupid 'cause we are the church
Hold up hold up, don't get it twisted
We ain't out of touch just 'cause we Christian It's out of love that we even mention Sin, repentance, forgiveness, the crucifixion and that you can be changed

You gon' need the man that you sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on Sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on
You gon' need the man that you sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on Sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on, sleepin' on
