

Welcome

Flame

Welcome to a place where the guns don't pop but a place where the fun don't stop homie to a place where Jesus be and we don't even need a Jesus piece homie welcome to a place where we follow the Bible and we don't even need j ars of dro homie
and ain't nobody tryna grind for shine cause Jesus is the star of the show and that's real

You ask us where the guns at homie where the weed at we like kill that homeboy we don't need that instead of the heat we'll be where G-O-D's at so we reachin' out with open arms like where your sleeves at I notice something cats'll die for they reputation they rather die disin' God and to get with Satan but on this side we collide in anticipation of Jesus' second coming written in Revelation we don't grip steel sell crack none of that we live life in light of the fact He's coming back so while they squeeze clips blood crip gang banging east coast west coast down south slanging Midwest nina poppin'seein' Jesus hangin' on the cross resurrected' and you still thinkin' that you cool without His grace is crazy its a slap to the face of the God who made me and you

and we don't even need a Jesus piece homie
ars of dro homie

We kissed the world goodbye and its love for women its love for sinning simply because His love is in us
we kissed the world goodbye and its music too that music's confused dudes like a rubrics cube homienow we pluggin' into Christian rap so many lyrics about Christ a make a Christian snap and wanna spread love to a thug with a nine milli and I ain't playin' this time dirty and I'm silly and every movie and commercial that makes fun of us like South Park with wicked hearts that come up and comic view and Islamic dudes that do it too one day the Bible say they'll pay homage too the very King that they mocked and laughed at the Bible says at they very plots He laughs back so we gone love our enemies and we gone have fun as we patiently wait on the return of the Son homie
