

Enthusiasm for Life Defeats Existential Fear Part 2

Flaming Lips

I woke up from a bad dream
Glad, glad that it wasn't the real thing
Your hand, waiting there for me
Oh yeah, this world is evil, but still
The rest is up to me

I woke up from a sad dream
Glad, glad that it wasn't the real thing
Your smile, waiting there for me
Oh yeah, this world is suffering, but still
The rest is up to me

See the moon, falling
Old sun, exploding as
It's going to be a sunny day
Oh yeah, I'm thinking it
Don't you forget it now
It's happening

See the moon, falling
Old sun, exploding as
It's going to be a sunny day
Oh yeah, I'm thinking it
Don't you forget it now
It's happening
That's what's happening
It's just what's happening
That's what's happening
I think it's happening
I think it's happening
I think it's happening
I think it's happening
I think it's happening
