

My Own Planet

Flaming Lips

One, two, three!

I'm living here on the third speck from the sun
I think it's about time that my own world has begun
A place where my mind has all the color that it needs
A place where my trippy life, it just belongs to me

I want my own planet
The human race, I can't stand it
I want my own planet
Cause this one here is a drag

Ain't talking about no Hitler kind of trip
Just want a place where things can be just as they wish
If you can't dig all these things I have to say
You're gonna blow up this whole planet anyway
And that's why

I want my own planet
The human race, I can't stand it
I want my own planet
Cause this one here is a drag

I want my own planet
The human race, I can't stand it
I want my own planet
Cause this one here is a drag

Want my own

I want my own planet
The human race, I can't stand it
I want my own planet
Cause this one here is a drag

What a drag!
