Stand in Line

Flaming Lips

Ten men stand in line At the gates of the cemetery on tuesday morning They're not open today And ten moms stand in line At maternity ward They're not bringin' no babies out to play Anytime today

What's a nice girl like you doin' Walkin' around this part of town? See you sometime tomorrow

And ten men stand in line Waitin' for some personality to be put out on the corner Today ain't garbage day Ain't no grabage taken today
