

Stampede

Flatfoot 56

If I had jaws of a lion, if I had claws on my hands and feet, then all the power that I possess I would use to your defeat... Common...

And if I was tall like a mighty mountain,
if I was brutal as the desert sand,
I would let you run 'til you got away,
then I'd crush you in the palm of my hand.

I'm gonna run you down, 'cause it's a stampede.
I'm gonna run you down. You better move your feet.

If I had the jaws of a lion, if I had claws on my hands and feet, then all the power that I possess, I'd use to your defeat.
I'm gonna paint you black and blue.

If I broke you with iron, if I crushed you like clay,
then all the people would tremble when they saw you on that day.

I'm gonna run you down, 'cause it's a stampede.
I'm gonna run you down. You better move your feet.

I gotta keep...
I gotta keep doing what I'm doing.
Yes, I gotta keep doing what I'm doing.
(4x)

I'm gonna run you down, 'cause it's a stampede.
I'm gonna run you down. You better move your feet....
Run you down.
