Book of Love

Fleetwood Mac

Walked out, goodbye I swore I never would cry Tore a page of my heart She wants me to be her friend I'm lonely again Tore a page of my heart

Oh, tell me who wrote the book of love Was it somebody from above (ha, ha, ha) Surely he must know all the rules (ha, ha, ha) Knowledge not meant for mortal fools Must have been someone from above Tell me, who wrote the book of love

In silence the lonely make all their mistakes Tore a page of my heart Someone in heaven above Shop me how to love Tore a page of my heart

Oh, tell me who wrote the book of love Was it somebody from above (ha, ha, ha) Surely he must know all the rules (ha, ha, ha) Knowledge not meant for mortal fools Must have been someone from above Tell me, who wrote the book of love
