

Blessed 2 Have

Floetry

How you feeling?
Give thanks and breathe it in
Give thanks and breathe it in.
'Cause we're blessed.

Blessed to have another moment,
Some more time spent,
Some more minds to get into.
Blessed to have another daydream,
Another maybe,
Yeah.

Forget the bang or the reload,
The efforts to decode,
This life is a long road,
The objects to be bold,
The lessons are retold,
The prophets are resold,
The mercy is so cold,
We service the download.
So right this down now,
Brand new sound now,
Mix it right now,
Keep me loud now.
I wanna ignite the solar of your plexus,
I see you're restless so take this and trust us.
Chances are there's still a chance.
Forever is your state of trance.
Give thanks.
Breathe it in.

See this is for the takers and the offerings,
The barterers and the bargaining,
The movers and the sitting in,
The wheel it out and come again.
We're sending you a part of we,
Knowing what will be will be,
We giving you a melody,
Marketing a harmony.
So, write this down now,
Brand new sound now,
Mix it right now,
Keep me loud now.
I wanna ignite the solar of your plexus,
I see you're restless so take this and trust us.
Believe that you can make believe,
You know who you're supposed to be.
Give thanks.
Breathe it in.

Three stages.
Believe.
Understand.
Make Believe.
Innerstand.
Chance.
Overstand.

There's still a chance.
U feel me?
U hear me?
U see we?
Listen.
Granted that I have one more day.
To say what I have to say.
Granted that I still remain.
To share what is my song.
