

Let Me In

Floetry

Let me in
It's kinda funny that you listen but you never show,
The kinda opening I'm hoping intertwines our soul.
It's kinda silly that you really wanna let me know.
The kinda feeling that you're dealing with you're tryna cope.
I'm not perfect, You're not perfect,
This aint worth it,
You gotta know by now, I have good intentions,
But I got a temper,
Baby still remember, what we're here to do.

I wanna help you 'cause, I think that we can beat whatever.
I wanna prove to you,
Aint nothing gonna stop us never.
I wanna innerstand,
The type a moves you're gonna choose.
I wanna show you baby.
This way we'll never loose.

I'm in need of,
Your love darling,
If we keep on,
Starting over and,
Over baby,
Miscommunicating.
Then I'll still be waiting.
Let me.

Something's troubling it's worrying,
And I can see.
Something different, bout the way you interact with me.
Something peculiar, I'm telling ya, it shouldn't be,
Something singular, When really it's about the we.
You've been thinking, I've been thinking,
But we should be talking.
Our hearts apart are coming to their own assumptions.
They're still in love and,
We need to need to know it,
There's nothing else to prove.

Why you hesitate,
About debating on the real?
Why you acting like, I'm not your friend, I'm just your girl.
Why you tryna keep on hiding what I know you feel.
Why you trying to fight alone
You know I know the deal.
You're in need of,
My love baby,
We can't keep on,
Denying fate it is,
What it is to be.
You and Me.
Can't you see?
Let me.

You gotta let me in,
So I can understand.

See I'm your lady,
And baby you're my man.
You gotta let me know, I'm not letting go.
I wanna see forever,
With you baby oh!
You gotta let me see,
The pain will leave.
And I'm gone nurse ya, I'll make it better.
You gotta let me in.
You're the one I love.
I miss your kiss and hugging.
Don't wanna hurt for nothing.

You know, I'm just trying to be there.
We're on the same side baby.
It's me and you.
You know the coo!
I got you.
