

Life Is Good

Flogging Molly

She said make this pain, disappear
And lead me to this light
You'll one day fear
Don't make me belong
Where I don't belong
Let's us suffer in this silence I can't hear

Oh, but if I could walk across the ocean
To be beside you when you sleep
I'd swim the cold Atlantic water
Just to hold you next to me

Life is good, life is good
Life is fine, life is fine
Life is everything we loathe, it's so unkind
They say death is cruel, death is cruel
But death unwinds, death unwinds
It comes naturally to all us here alive

She said take these words, sing along
For we beggars can't be choosers very long
Come to me here, and whisper in your ear
Oh, enjoy yourselves, I know I surely did

Oh, but if I could walk across the ocean
Find ourselves a little peace
Where all our troubles are forgotten
And wars will someday cease

Life is good, life is good
Life is fine, life is fine
Life is everything we loathe, it's so unkind
They say death is cruel, death is cruel
But death unwinds, death unwinds
It comes naturally to all us here alive
Say it isn't so
Say it isn't so

Oh, but if I could walk across the ocean
To be beside you when you sleep
I'd swim the cold Atlantic water
Just to hold you next to me

[illegible]

Say it isn't so
