

Rebels of the Sacred Heart

Flogging Molly

[Verse 1]

Now I'm aimin' for heaven
But probably wind up down in hell
Where upon this alter I will hang my guilt ridden head
But it's time I'll take before I begin
Three sheets to the wind, Three sheets to the wind

[Chorus]

Rebels are we, though heavy our hearts shall always be
Ah, no ball or chain no prison shall keep
We're the rebels of the sacred heart
I said no ball or chain no prison shall keep
We're the rebels of the sacred heart

[Bridge]

D G D G D A D (x2)

[Verse 2]

Terrified of the open road
Yeah, where it leads ya never know
But rest assured he'll be on you back
Yeah, the Holy Ghost through his tounge in black
As the band dog howls and the young girl cries
The blessed virgin in her proud dad's eye
The albatross hangin' round your neck
Is the cross you bare for your sins he bleeds

[Chorus]

(same as above)

Rebels are we, though heavy our hearts shall always be
Ah, no ball or chain no prison shall keep
We're the rebels of the sacred heart

[Bridge]

D G D G D A D (x2)

[Verse 3]

Genuflect all you refugees who fled the land
Now on guilt you kneel
And say a prayer for those left behind
From beyond the pale to the Northern sky
So you saved your shillins and your last six pence
Cause in God's name they built a barbed wire fence
Be glad you sailed for a better day
But don't forget there'll be hell to pay

[Chorus]

(same as above)

Rebels are we, though heavy our hearts shall always be
Ah, no ball or chain no prison shall keep
We're the rebels of the sacred heart
I said no ball or chain no prison shall keep
We're the rebels of the sacred heart

[Solo]

A G D (x2)

D G D G D A D (x2)

[Bridge 2]

Resurrection no protection all things life must be

[Chorus]

(same as above)

Ah no ball or chain no prison shall keep

We're the rebels of the sacred heart

[Verse 4]

Now bless me father for I have sinned

But it's the same old story again and again and again

Ah well, such is the bread of an everyday life

From mornin' to noon to this shadowless night

[Chorus]

(same as above)

Rebels are we, though heavy our hearts shall always be

Ah, no ball or chain no prison shall keep

We're the rebels of the sacred heart

I said no ball or chain no prison shall keep

We're the rebels of the sacred heart

Comment: Verse 3 is identical to Verse 2 and the Choruses are all the same.
