

I Am The Speechless

Flood Of Red

I've never frozen so much standing still.
I am the iceberg, the iceberg.
I've never been so scared like this before.
Scared as the crowd should be,
Scared now, scared on my feet.

And I am times when whenever I say,
let it be times when,
I never mention,
I never called your name tonight,
Or your name at all.
Can we guess what time this is?
This is the time, to throw it all.

The world won't ever change, we feel it everyday.
Cause' the world won't change for us.

And I am times when whenever I say,
let it be times when,
I never mention,
I never called your name tonight,
Or your name at all.
Can we guess what time this is?
This is the time, to throw it all.

Covering the parts that feels so empty now.
So empty now.

Oh, I'll dream on.
And I'll dream on.
I am the speechless,
I am feeling restless.

I am the speechless
and I'm feeling restless
