

Like Elephants

Flood Of Red

The sky's full of grace,
We slept through it all,
Until the first sign of life,
Lit up the whole room.

Leave this room to leave room for you now.
Leaving this all behind.
I'm like all the elephants in this world,
I cannot forget you.

Open window, staring deep into the sky,
I disappear into it, I'll be with you soon,
I just don't want to die.
(could be wrong, and the demo version is different from the mys pace demo).

Leave this room to leave room for you now.
Leaving this all behind.
I'm like all the elephants in this world,
I cannot forget you.

It's a long way for me to leave here,
You think I should stay.

Leave this room to leave room for you now.
Leaving this all behind.
I'm like all the elephants in this world,
I cannot forget you.

It's a long way for me to leave here,
You think I should stay.
