Always

Floorpunch

All us kids, all our stories We come together for the glory The scene we have is like no other Ever kid my friend, every kid my brother

Pick you up when you fall Help you out when your back is to the wall It flows in our heart and in our veins This positive youth will always remain