Angel

Florida Georgia Line

I know you love a little late night Just me and you glowing with the brake light Silhouettes sipping with a halo Anything you want, girl, just say so

A little whisper off your lips, yeah Said you're ready for the moonlight mix, yeah I keep you spinning 'til you get your fix 'Til the sky gets lit, 'til the sunlight hits, yeah

I've been given a piece of heaven Yeah, you're my angel, you're my angel tonight Did it hurt when you fell from the sky? Pretty girl, I'm gonna make you fly See I was burning but you saved my life My angel, you're my angel tonight

Yeah, I'm never gonna let you down (I got you, baby) I just gotta tell you now ('cause my heart can't wait, girl) You're my angel, you're my angel tonight

And do you thing, baby, 'cause it's so hot There it is, yeah, that's the sweet spot Blow your smoke, I'm gonna breathe it in, girl Maybe it's a sin but, baby, bring it back again, yeah

I've been given a piece of heaven Yeah, you're my angel, you're my angel tonight Did it hurt when you fell from the sky? Pretty girl, I'm gonna make you fly See I was burning but you saved my life My angel, you're my angel tonight
