Smooth

Florida Georgia Line

Hmm-hmm-hmm-hmm Hmm-hmm-hmm-hmm Smooth Like a Tennessee Walker Just a walking on the water You're smooth Like a Sunday morning Elvis Singing Gospel it's a hell of a Groove Like the lines on her Mercury Girl you're put together perfectly Good lord almighty Girl, you go down good You ain't even trying Cause you wrote the book There ain't nobody That do me like you The way you move that body Girl, you're so smooth Like cat daddy driving A Caddy from Cali baby You're smooth Like young love buzzing Off an old can bottle by the Moon Blackberry jam, finger-licking Off your hand flying out the window Good lord almighty Girl, you go down good You ain't even trying Cause you wrote the book There ain't nobody (There ain't nobody) That do me like you (Do me like you) The way you move that body (The way you move that body) Girl, you're so smooth (So smooth) Smooth, smooth You're a stroke on the canvas A brick road to Kansas My little summer time jam Good lord almighty Girl, you go down good You ain't even trying Cause you wrote the book There ain't nobody (There ain't nobody) That do me like you (Do me like you) The way you move that body

(The way you move that body) Girl, you're so smooth (So smooth) Smooth, smooth (You so smooth) Smooth
