Scream

Your turn away Resentfully I take no blame For my vulgarity

You're choking as you try to laugh You're vomiting up cream And with a kiss you cut my tongue I've lost my voice to scream

Give it back to me I'm not as drunk as I seem I can't scream You walk away Whilst they whore me Taking no blame Full of jealousy

Give it back to me I'm not as drunk as I seem You filled my lungs with Kerosine And now you've raped my voice to scream I can't scream 1st verse repeated

Give it back to me I'm not as drunk as I seem

Give it back to me I'm not as drunk as I seem You filled my lungs with Kerosine And now you've raped my voice to scream

I'm not as drunk as I seem I'm not as drunk as I seem You filled my lungs with Kerosine And now you've raped my voice to scream Fluffy
