

Bummed

Flunk

I'm bummed for reason
Even the trees are mixing up the seasons
Everything will have to go before they close down the flower show
Only fakes will survive
The scene turning sour by the hour
The slow parade got lost in the crowd
And the ten ton trucks with the carnival lot got stuck in a jam
On the road, out of town

I'm bummed for time
And the rain pours down
On the broken parts and disjointed hearts all left behind
On the road, out of town
I'm bummed now
And i don't know how

The ferris wheel stopped, the power switched off with me on the top
With a stranger, and a view
I'm bummed for time
And the rain pours down
On the broken parts and disjointed hearts all left behind

On the road, out of town
I say, Yes, I'm impressed
I'm impressed
But I'm still dressed
I'm bummed now
And the rain pours down
On the broken parts and disjointed hearts all left behind
And we wept, while the town went to sleep
