

Common Sense

Flunk

Today I lost my common sense
It slipped away on the corner of Pike and 10th
I guess it happened on purpose
Because lately it's been getting quite intense

Today I wandered round the bend
I took the trip with a friend shopping round for friends
Had no particular purpose
Just picking up the pieces and pretend it all makes sense

You blow my mind
And I'll blow yours
I've seen the force of your pretty smile
Baby, do it one more time

Do it one more time
Do it one more time
Do it one more time
Do it one more time

Today I lost my sense of pride
Hiding out somewhere it wasn't supposed to hide
It might be gone for a while
Like music that suddenly just goes out of style

Today I lost my sense of time
It disappeared like anything you just can't find
I guess I don't really care
I've been running behind now year after year

You blow my mind
And I'll blow yours
I've seen the force of your pretty smile
Baby, do it one more time

You blow my mind
And I'll blow yours
I've seen the force of your pretty smile
Baby, do it one more time

Do it one more time
Do it one more time
Do it one more time
Do it one more time
Do it one more time
Do it one more time

Today I lost my common sense
It slipped away on the corner of Pike and 10th
I guess it happened on purpose
