

Sanctuary

Flunk

Snow is falling quietly
Careless of it's destiny
Emptiness will kill me soon
Tonight they'll dance outside my bedroom

Someone's walking happily
Carry all their mystery
Isolation's killing me
Tonight they'll dance for me

Wind is whistling down the street
Drowning sounds of happy feet
Temptation's killing me
Tonight the wind will sing for me

Colors fade into the night
They're refugees in neon lights
Darkness is killing me
Later light will shine on me

You'll be standing next to me
Soon you will be kissing me
Happiness is killing me
Tonight you will be dancing for me
