

Speedskating

Flunk

Is this the spirit of heart
To let me skating here
Into my death

Is this the doom of my heart
To let me fall down
Here under the ice

One, two, three, four
One, two, three, four

Is this worth fighting for
I like to be about it
This is treacherous ice
Not to be skating on
Not to be playing with

One, two, three, four
One, two, three, I fall
Through the ice
Through the ice
Ice, ice, ice

Is this worth fighting for
Is this worth fighting for
Is this worth fighting for

[spoken part]

Is this worth fighting for
Is this worth fighting for
Is this worth fighting for
Is this worth fighting for
Is this worth fighting for
Is this worth fighting for
